

Febrero 18

I got to be in the clinic today from 8:30 to 3:30 with Sis. McDowell. I was able to communicate some with the secretary Leny and had a conversation with one of the patients. Several children came in and also a man who had cut above his eye from a branch falling on him. She stitched him up with three stitches. I drew up some medicine, but did not give it to the child this time, because I have never done it before. It am having fun helping in the clinic. I also got to buy souvenirs from some shops today.

Febrero 19

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is there will your heart be also. -Mateo 6:19-21

Lord, help me to lay up my treasures in heaven by bringing souls and fruits of righteousness, godliness, and contentment to You. Don't allow my focus to be on earthly things which will perish.

Today has been an exciting and busy day. I have seen a birth, washed a newborn for the first time, seen seven stitches placed in an arm wound, and taken several blood pressures and heart rates. The birth was the first vaginal birth I have seen. The baby is so adorable! I also gave my first intramuscular injection. I am communicating with patients much better than I thought I would be able. But I have to tell them, "No hablo mucho ingles, repite por favor."
