Muir, Pennsylvania

Greetings from the Muir Pilgrim Holiness Church! We thought we would give you an update. For a time, we were blessed to have young preacher men from Penn View Bible Institute to fill in along with Bro. Howard McKenzie and family.

After much prayer, Bro. Tim Dendler came to pastor for us. While attending a youth camp, he met and courted his bride-to-be Joli Heckman. After some time, a wedding date was set — September 1. We were happy to have a family in the parsonage. Bro. and Sr. Dendler left us in July 2005, after seven years of service here.

Bro. Daniel Heckman and family were attending the church at that time. We asked him to take the pastorate. It is one year later now, and the church is still enjoying the presence of God in our services.

We have established a memorial fund in memory of Sr. Violet Lucas. New windows were installed in the spring of 2006. We are also replacing the much-worn carpet and putting siding on the church.

Unity has been the key ingredient of a very close “church family.”

CONFERENCE PRESIDENT’S EDITORIAL

it should be wide enough and strong enough to hold fifty thousand millions of the human race, if so many of them should ever be born. It should be blasted out of the ‘Rock of Ages’ and cemented with the blood of the Cross, and be lifted amid the shouting of angels and the execration of devils. The King sent His Son to build that road. He put head and hand and heart to it, and after the road was completed, waved His blistered hand over the way, crying, ‘It is finished!’”

Yes, there is a Highway of Holiness, and Christ wants us to safely travel it all the way to glory. Thus, He has put boundaries, scriptural rumble strips, to keep us safely on the way.

“He shall give His angels charge over thee . . . to keep thee in all thy ways.”

“No unclean thing shall pass over it. No lions, nor any ravenous beast . . . the redeemed shall walk there.”

“And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.”

Wonderful Highway of Holiness! Don’t smooth the spiritual, scriptural rumble strips, lest we veer off the Highway and lose our way. 🐾
